on a client facing assignment, you or the Company may terminate your service at any time by giving 60 days of notice or one months' basic salary in lieu thereof except in some circumstances, based on the need and the client concerned, the company may require you to serve a period of 90 days for transition.

5. Upon your resignation, you are required to return all company's assets and property back to the relevant person(s)/department(s).

6. Your remuneration shall remain confidential and is to be strictly kept between yourself and the Company. You should be aware that your compensation is determined based on numerous factors such as your job, skills, specific background, and professional merit. This information and any changes made therein should be treated as personal and confidential.

7. During your service with the Company you are expected to devote your time and attention to the Company's affairs and refrain from directly or indirectly engaging in any other business.

8. Any Information pertaining to company operations are to be treated as intellectual property and is bound by a confidentiality and a non-disclosure clause of your terms of employment. If you are bound by a confidentiality agreement with a previous employer, you must notify the Company and indemnify the Company against any breach thereof.

9. If any information furnished to the Company in pursuance to your application for employment or during the selection process is found at any time to be incorrect or false, and/or if you have suppressed material information regarding your qualifications and experience, the Company may terminate your services without any notice or compensation.

10. You shall abide by all the rules and regulations of the Company which are in force from time to time and the Company shall have the right to vary or modify any or all of the above terms and conditions which shall be binding on you.

The impact of today's technology and pace of change is tremendous. We hope you're as excited as we are to play a part in that revolution. To confirm your acceptance of this offer letter on the terms and conditions specified herein, please acknowledge your acceptance.
