Minority Cell

Standard Operating Procedure

PURPOSE:

India pledged to create a socially just and equitable society when it attained independence. Several sections in the Special Provisions of the CONSTITUTION OF INDIA strive to eliminate discrimination and allow members of various groups to participate equally and freely in public life. The Indian Constitution has various specific provisions in favour of Minorities.

SCOPE:

Vikas Group of Institutions is the destination for high quality education comprising almost all the areas of studies such as UG and PG in Engineering and Pharmacy, and Polytechnic courses, strives to establish an inclusive and unbiased environment for pupils from all backgrounds. To maintain a discrimination free environment, the Minorities cell is established for teaching the campus community about the value of equality and diversity. The cell ensures that the reservation regulations of the Government of India are followed for student admissions and staff recruitment at all levels. It gathers information on policy execution, trends, and shifts.

RESPONSIBILITY:

Vikas Group of Institutions takes any sort of allegations of discrimination, whether they are explicit or subliminal, against the Minorities students, employees, or faculty very seriously. Several initiatives have been put in place by Vikas Group of Institutions to help the Minorities students, including the appointment of a prominent faculty member as Chairman and a Nodal Officer for the Minorities cell to oversee all the cell operations.

Duties and Responsibilities of Minorities Cell

- Receives any sort of complaints related to the Minorities students and employees of the Institute
- Redressal of complaints from the Minorities students and employees
